

Chetan Seth

Equity Strategist, Nomura

Chetan joined Nomura in December 2017 and is firm's Asia-Pacific Regional Equity Strategist based in Singapore. He has more than a decade of experience in Equity Strategy research. Before joining Nomura, he worked as an Asia ex JP/ Global Equities Strategist at Macquarie's highly rated equity strategy team in Hong Kong (2013-2017), and has also held strategy/research roles at other investment banks including Lehman Brothers. Chetan's investment framework draws heavily from his global macro experience and a data-driven/analytical approach to form an investment view on equities in the region. He started his career in 2002 at McKinsey in India, before joining the equities business in 2006 at Lehman Brothers. He is a qualified Chartered Accountant, and also a CFA charterholder