

Mr. Jeong Woo Park

Economist, South Korea/Taiwan
Nomura

Jeong Woo joined Nomura Global Economics team in 2020. He has about 20 years of working experiences specialized in Korea's economy and economic policy, and had been constantly ranked as No.1 in Asia Money between 2016-2019.

Before joining Nomura, he was chief economist and head of asset strategy at Korea Investment Securities company; strategist at Samsung securities; Chief economist at SK Securities.

After graduating Seoul National University, he started his economist career at Daishin Economic Research Institute, before he studied economics for his MSc degree at LSE and international economy at Warwick university in the UK.