

Mr. Manabu Akizuki

Senior Equity Research Analyst, Electronic Parts
Japan, Nomura

Manabu Akizuki has covered the electronic parts sector since 2005. Since the launch of the iPhone in 2007 he has continued to research IT hardware, focusing in particular on mobile handsets and cloud computing. He conducts multi-faceted research and analysis into the construction of next-generation energy networks and changes in retail sector distribution strategies that make use of digital technologies and the cloud. In the electronic parts category of the Nikkei Veritas rankings he earned second place in 2018 and 2019, and ranked first for the electronics/components sector in the 2020 Institutional Investor rankings.
