

Ned Millington Buck

Executive Director
Head of BlockCross, Asia Pacific
Instinet Pacific Limited

Ned joined Instinet in 2022 as the Head of Instinet’s BlockCross platform in the Asia Pacific region. In this role, he is responsible for the launch and growth of the business across Asia, with oversight of its product management, sales, and client trading coverage. Ned works closely with clients to provide guidance on liquidity sourcing, dark crossing, and the conditional order landscape across multiple jurisdictions in Asia.

Prior to Instinet, Ned served as an Electronic Sales Trader at Virtu ITG, and earlier held positions in High Touch Sales Trading at firms in Hong Kong. Ned is a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin and holds a Master’s degree in History.
