

Tse Chern Chia

Head of Fixed Income
Nomura Asset Management Taiwan

Tse Chern joined Nomura Asset Management Taiwan Ltd in July 2015 as the head of the Fixed Income Team where he is responsible for setting up the firm's fixed income investment capability. He currently leads a team of 10 fund managers and analysts in Taipei.

He worked in UOB Asset Management Singapore (UOBAM) from 2008 to 2015 as Head of Asia Fixed Income. In UOBAM, he managed the United Asian Bond Fund, which won 8 Lipper Fund Awards between 2010–2014 in the Asia Pacific bonds category, Morningstar Singapore's Best Asia Bond Fund award in 2013 and Asia Asset Management's best Asian Bonds in 2014.

During his stint in UOBAM, he also managed United Asian High Yield Bond Fund and United Renminbi Bond Fund, both of which have one of the best performance track records among its peers.

Tse Chern was an economist with Credit Suisse between 1998-2006, covering Southeast Asia and India. He was voted 2nd best economist covering Malaysia in 2003 by Asiamoney

Education

- Masters of Applied Economics (Distinction) from Australian National University
- Bachelor of Business (Financial Analysis, Honours) from Nanyang Technological University