

Michael Woolley

Head of Sustainability
Eastspring Investments

Michael Woolley joined Eastspring Investments in August 2007 and leads our sustainability journey. Michael has lived in Singapore for over 16 years.

Over the past six years, Michael has been deeply involved in developing Eastspring's ESG policy formation and the ongoing implementation of Eastspring's Responsible Investment Framework and Governance Structure.

This involves building a collective understanding of sustainability through collaboration and engagement across the Group.

Until recently, Michael was embedded within the Japan equity team and represented the investment business as the communication bridge, responsible for articulating all aspects relating the team's investment edge.

Prior to joining Eastspring Investments, Michael worked at Schroder Investment Management (Singapore) Limited and held roles in institutional relationship management and product management in Asian equities. Prior to that, he worked at ING Australia as Account Manager, Corporate Superannuation.

Michael has 22 years of financial industry experience.

He holds a Bachelor Degree in Social Science (Economics) from the University of New South Wales, Australia and a Graduate Diploma in Applied Finance and Investment from the Financial Services Institute of Australasia.
