

Kohei Okazaki

Chief Market Economist, Nomura Securities Co., Ltd

岡崎康平先生

野村日本首席市场经济学家

Since Kohei joined Nomura in 2009, he has been conducting economic research activity. From 2017 to 2019, he was seconded to the Cabinet Office of Japanese government. He engaged in periodical estimation of GDP statistics and development activity for improvement of GDP statistics. He broadened area of research to governmental policies from 2020, including ESG related ones. He led Economic Research Group from 2022 as a head. Currently, he conducts economic research as the Chief Market Economist, Japan.

Kohei earned bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Tokyo in 2009. He also earned Master of Public Policy (MPP) from the University of Chicago, Harris School of Public Policy in 2016. He served as a consulting fellow of RIETI (until 2022). Kohei has publications such as "Q&A: 50 Basics of Finance," (Nikkei publishing, 2010, co-author), "Evidence-based Policy Making in the United States," (RIETI Discussion Paper Series 18-P-016, 2018, co-author), and "EBPM: Introduction and practice of evidence-based policy making," (Nikkei publishing, 2022, co-author).