

Rainer Michael Preiss

Partner & Portfolio Strategist
DAS Family Office

Rainer Michael Preiss is a German national and an investment advisor based in Singapore. He has over 25 years of experience in global private banking and multi-family office business across Europe, Middle East, Africa and Asia. Michael was previously the Chief Equity Strategist at Standard Chartered Bank (SCB) where he was one of seven voting members on the Global Investment Council which decided on SCB's global investment policy. He is also a prolific and renowned contributor to the financial media world where he is a columnist for Forbes and is frequently featured on Bloomberg, CNA and CNBC.

Michael's passion and commitment to emerging markets has earned him significant recognition as a board director for a prominent index fund based in Sri Lanka, as well as a distinguished visiting lecturer of Finance in Hong Kong, Singapore, China and Mongolian universities. With his dedication to deepening international relations and fostering investment opportunities in emerging markets, Michael was one of the key founding members of the Kazakhstan-Singapore Business Council.

Michael is a graduate of the European Business school, having studied at the centres in London, Paris and Bologna. Michael, in addition to being fluent in Japanese, studied intensive Mandarin Chinese at Beijing Language and Culture University (BLCU), as well as Yonsei University Korean Language Program in Seoul, South Korea.